Course title	MORAL DIMENSIONS OF HEALTH CARE
Course code	CFT - 205129
Learning outcomes	After successfully completing the course the student will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand holistic dimensions of health and disease through the prism of personalistic medicine with special emphasis on the importance of the spiritual dimension of health care. 2. Recognize ideologically motivated controversies and biological reductionisms that seek to diminish the ontological and legal status of the human person and his or her fundamental existential rights in moments of greatest vulnerability, from conception to death. 3. Influence the defence of human dignity through convincing testimony of moral and bioethical pastoral commitment. 4. Responsibly take the side of the “culture of life” with the principles of: inviolability, dignity, holiness and inestimable value of human life in the light of Catholic anthropology, by challenging the doctrine of ethical relativism, autonomous individualism, and permissive and liberal tendencies of modern biomedicine.
